CCXP COLOGNE: Virtual Cosplay Championship 2020 also with a top cast

The finalists have been chosen - the jury consultation and community voting have started

Following the cancellation of the physical CCXP COLOGNE 2020 due to corona, it was quickly clear that a high quality Cosplay Championship was nonetheless indispensable in 2020, if not in the hall, then in any case virtual. New this year: the best cosplay is being chosen in four categories. The winners can look forward to top prizes from Pfaff sewing machines and Cosplayflex. More than 100 international cosplayers from 15 countries on four continents have answered the call and the 10 finalists have now been chosen. In addition to the jury decision, there is for the first time the possibility this year for the community to celebrate its favourite cosplay.

The top 10 finalists Caio CDK, Erza Cosplay, In.Sain.I, Krystl Cosplay, Kurichan, Magic Wardrobe NL, Samui San, Sumi Cosplay, Vega Cosplay and Wasteland Weber will compete in the following categories:

- Best Armour

Whether medieval, fantasy, sci-fi or cyberpunk: we honour the most fantastic creations relating to armour. Regardless of what you use to build, whether EVA, Worbla, 3D printing or a completely different material: show us your abilities as an armorer and win our prize for 'Best Armour'.

- Best Costume

You prefer to work with fabric instead of with foam, love great dresses and sophisticated embroideries or have a special talent for the most exceptional sewing patterns? Then show us your best cosplay sewing project. Our 'Best Costume' category will be won by the creation that is best able to convince our jury in matters of textile art.

- Best in Show

Just bowl us over! Our 'Best in Show' category will be won by the cosplay project that simply blows our minds as a total artwork and is especially outstanding in all cosplay areas.

- CCXP COLOGNE Community Award

In addition to our expert jury, the CCXP COLOGNE community is also presenting an award for the first time to its favourite cosplayer among the finalists. Follow our social media channels to be sure not to miss voting for your favourite cosplayer!

All category winners receive a creative™ 1.5 sewing and embroidery machine from

Top jury

The final decision can be followed online at the end of July at www.ccxp-cologne.com and on the social media channels of the CCXP COLOGNE.

With Ben aka Maul Cosplay, Elien aka Liechee and Mirjam aka Tingilya Cosplay, the jury is ideally prepared for the difficult task of selecting the winners from the many great submissions in the coming days. The community is also called upon: you can vote away for your fan favourite on Facebook.

The CCXP COLOGNE Cosplay Championship is being presented and organised, as already in 2019, by Kes and Marcel from Kes Costume & Cosplay. Kes has already been hosting and organising cosplay competitions for more than 10 years. She has been producing historical costumes for LARP, reenactments and of course cosplays for even longer, in the meantime also together with Marcel: the two focus on cosplay from video games, TV and movies, in this case especially from the Marvel universe.

The next CCXP COLOGNE takes place from 25-27 June 2021 - and then once again with a big final show for the Cosplay Championship 2021 on the stage of the Thunder Theater.
