imm cologne 2026 brings a wide range of international offerings to Cologne

imm cologne 2026 is increasingly taking shape. As a dedicated B2B sourcing platform, the event will provide market-driven solutions for the international furniture sector, inspired by the central theme “World of Interiors”. The trade fair presents a large variety of products tailored to the entry-level to mid-range price points, thoughtfully structured to enable buyers to efficiently develop their selection of products. For the upcoming edition in January, more than 300 companies from 25 countries have registered - including manufacturers, trading companies, and OEM specialists.

“imm cologne 2026 is clearly geared towards efficient sourcing and market-ready solutions. The number of international suppliers that have already confirmed their participation underscores Cologne's strong reputation as a business platform for the industry. Our goal is to provide a straightforward overview of the market and bring companies together with the right partners,” says Bernd Sanden, Director of imm cologne. “The positive response from international vendors underlines the relevance of our concept and the significance of the trade fair for the global furniture sector.”

A wide selection of brands and market players

The trade fair's list of confirmed exhibitors reflects the international interior design industry's remarkable diversity. The companies that have registered include a mix of established furniture and interior design brands, international groups and specialized manufacturers such as Arocca, BOAS, BOFIGO Grup, the German Federal Association of Furniture & Kitchen Retailers (BVDM), Deutsche Post, Elettroidea, the Technical College for the Furniture Trade (Fachschule des Möbelhandels), HealthCare Europe, Justwise Group, KUKA (HK) Trade, Kuka Sleep, Man Wah Furniture Manufacturing, MEBEL STIL-M, Oumazing International, Standard, Sweetnight, UE Furniture and Zijlstra.

The wide range on offer at the trade fair is complemented by a number of country showcases. In 2026, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Romania, Japan, Taiwan and Turkey will each have their own pavilion featuring a curated selection of products from their nation's manufacturers.
