New on the advisory board: design expert Gabrielle Ammann

Starting in 2024, ART COLOGNE will take place two weeks earlier: 7 to 10
November 2024

ART COLOGNE is taking place this November 2023 over four days. The art fair starts on Thursday, 16.11.2023, with a preview and vernissage. The event opens to the general public from Friday, 17 until Sunday, 19.11.2023. Changes for the next edition also include the floor plan and layout of ART COLOGNE, which will be distributed over two levels of Hall 11 on the Cologne fair grounds. Hall 11.2, with its innovative visitor orientation introduced last November, with the sections CONTEMPORARY GALLERIES, COLLABORATIONS, and NEUMARKT, will continue. Hall 11.1, with MODERN and POSTWAR ART, will revert back to the layout from 2019 and integrates the VIP Club, Cafe and Restaurant.

The ART + OBJECT section newly introduced last year will now, like all other sections of ART COLOGNE, fall under the auspices of the advisory board. The focus of this section will present Design of the 20th and 21st centuries and the booths will be integrated into the general floorplan of the art fair. The design expert Gabrielle Ammann has joined the advisory board as the newest member.

These changes have come at the request of the exhibitors.

The presentation of the Wolfgang Hahn Prize, which has been awarded by the Gesellschaft für Moderne Kunst (Society for Modern Art) of Museum Ludwig annually in Cologne since 1994, is also being rescheduled and will now take place on Friday evening during the course of the art fair.

Starting in 2024 ART COLOGNE will take place two weeks earlier. The dates for the 57th ART COLOGNE will be from 7 to 10 November 2024
